

Frequently asked Questions about Pezzol Safety Footwear

1) Where is Pezzol Safety Footwear Manufactured?

Pezzol Safety Footwear is manufactured in Italy

2) Does Pezzol Safety Footwear meet the specifications of the Oil and Gas Industry?

Pezzol footwear meets the specifications in the Oil and Gas Industry particularly EN 345 and ASTM 2413. Pezzol Products also comply with the current REACH Regulations in Europe. Test reports for Pezzol Safety Footwear are available on request.

3) How does Pezzol ensure quality in its Manufacturing Process?

Pezzol S.R.L operates Quality Management Systems which conform to ISO 9001: 2008.

4) Has Pezzol Safety Footwear been approved by the oil industry in Nigeria and other parts of the globe?

Yes, Pezzol Safety Footwear has numerous references including but not limited to the following companies worldwide including Nigeria;

National Drilling Company (NDC) ADMA-OPCO, ADNOC, WEATHERFORD, ESNN, MAERSK, DOLPHIN DRILLING, BRITISH PETROLEUM, SAIPEM, SHELL, SPDC and TOTAL E&P.

The ADMA –OPCO evaluation in 2009 rated Pezzol Safety shoes as number 1 among the 3 acceptable brands.

5) What benefit will my organisation derive if we change to Pezzol Safety Footwear?

A) Products do not contain Substances of Very High Concern (SHVC)

B) Elimination of workers down time as a result of complaints and strikes related to Shoe quality.

C) Pezzol Products are competitive priced and will ensure cost saving whilst maintaining quality.

D) Pezzol Safety Footwear meets and exceeds the specification of both ASTM 2413 and EN 345.

E) Pezzol can manufacture shoes to EH requirements.

6) Can Pezzol Safety Footwear be acquired in Nigeria?

Yes, Pezzol Safety Footwear can be acquired through its Sole/ Exclusive Distributor in Nigeria; Genpaco Limited(www.genpaco.com). Samples are also available for you to examine.